Holocaust Memorial Day

Holocaust Memorial Day falls this weekend (27th January). Next week in school we will mark this day by holding an assembly based on the dangers of prejudice and the effects of persecution. Our 5/6 class have prepared a display for school this week and enjoyed making Challah Bread on Thursday morning—in their very own Jewish bakery! Take a look at their display on Anne Frank in the school hall.

Parent Teacher Meetings

This week parents and carers came into school to discuss the End of Key Stage Assessments (Year 2 and Year 6). They received information about these statutory tests and were able to peruse some sample questions. Thank you to all those who were able to come along. If you were unable to attend but would still like the information, please contact school.

Farewell Miss Jackson

Miss Jackson leaves us today after five months of successful post-graduate teacher training. Pupils and staff are very grateful for the work she has put in on our children's behalf. We all wish her every success in her future teaching career.

Thank you Miss Jackson
